

DANCE AND THE LIVING ARTS

Three online Workshops

“Original talent and the creative process”
Presented by Robert de Warren and based on his longstanding dance career

RUDOLF NUREYEV

Personal Memories Working with a Genius

A twenty-five-year experience.

Nureyev changed the face of dance. He opened new horizons for male dancers.

He provoked conflicting views of his character and personality – yet his genius overrides all other considerations. Too often the media accented personal issues over the magnitude of his artistic legacy. The de Warren’s enjoyed a very private and loyal relationship with this giant who became their friend.

(Includes much original anecdotal, artistic details, and film)

Session I - Nureyev’s early years A sense of destiny and simmering disquiet

Session II – Nureyev is embraced by the West

His adoption by the greatest personalities of his time. His legendary partnership with Dame Margot Fonteyn. Celebrating her Centenary in 2020

Session III - Consumed by internal passions – Defiant through his long illness yet creative to the end.

Register early to avoid disappointment, as classes will fill up quickly
